What is SCoD?

Scottish Council on Deafness (SCoD) is the voice of deaf* people in Scotland. We are the only Scottish umbrella body of organisations representing and supporting deaf people, their families, carers and professionals working with deaf people.

We work to improve the lives of deaf people in Scotland, to help promote their rights as individuals and reduce their sense of exclusion.

Why now?

In the past, SCoD membership was restricted to organisations and thus many individuals keen to support us were disappointed. We have listened to our supporters and at last membership is now available to everybody!

Who can join?

Associate membership of SCoD is open to anyone who shares our passion for deaf issues.

Becoming an Associate

Associate membership has many benefits, including:

- Regular member mailings
- Monthly Bulletin and Scottish Parliament Report
- Newsletter
- Invitations to our National Council meetings
- An annual invitation to attend our AGM
- The opportunity to participate in our sub-committee(s) and task group(s)

I Want to Join!

- The opportunity to shape future government policy and legislation
- Networks for information exchange

How much does it cost?

Associate membership costs just £20 each year.

I enclose a cheque for £20 payable to “Scottish Council on Deafness”

I have completed a Standing Order Request (see over)

Please tick one

This can be paid as a single sum annually or split into four £5 payments throughout the year if you set up a standing order with us.

deaf when we use this term we mean it to include all people on the deafness spectrum: Deaf Sign Language users, deafened, deafblind and hard of hearing people
