

CONNECT & CAPITALISE

To book tickets for the Conference, go to Eventbrite by clicking here or by contacting us at admin@scod.org.uk.

Thursday 9 March 2017

Doubletree by Hilton, Glasgow

Maureen Watt MSP and Minister for Mental Health will be our keynote speaker.

PROGRAMME

9:15 - 10:00 Registration & Networking Opportunity,

Refreshments available

10:00 -10:10 Welcome

Keynote Speakers

10:10 - 10:30 Maureen Watt MSP - Minister for Mental Health

10:30 - 10:50 Martyn Evans - Chief Executive, Carnegie UK Trust

Marketplace Break

10:50 -11:30 Refreshments networking and time to browse the stalls

Workshop Session 1

11:30 - 12:30 3 workshops running at the same time

12:30 - 13:30 Networking Lunch

Workshop Session 2

13:30 - 14:30 3 workshops running at the same time

14:30 - 14:45 Afternoon refreshment break

Workshop Session 3

14:45 – 15:45 3 workshops running at the same time

Keynote Speaker

15:45 - 16:05 Yvonne Strachan CBE - Head of Human Rights & Equality, Scottish Government

16:05 – 16:15 Chair's closing remarks

-----*

* This year's conference title "Connect and Capitalise" means that we are building on the connections and partnerships that have been made over the last three years and at our last two conferences. We all benefit or capitalise on these connections as we grow the Deaf Sector.